Technique (26 available content points)

Requirements
The use case name must match exactly the use case name specified in the use case diagram. It should be included in all places required by the use case specification template.
The number and names of actors mentioned in the narrative flows within the use case specification must match exactly the actors shown on the use case diagram.
Metadata fields in the use case specification forms must be completely and accurately populated.
The Brief Description must be descriptive and brief.
There must be a Basic Flow narrative that describes the normal or most frequent course of action (the Happy Day scenario).
There must be an alternative flow for each possible deviation from the basic flow.
All flows (basic and alternative) must state exactly how they begin.
All flows (basic and alternative) must state exactly how they end.
Within a flow narrative, action should alternate between actors and System.
If requirements are shown in the Special Requirements section, they must be non-functional rather than functional requirements. All functional requirements must be expressed in either the Basic Flow or Alternative Flows.
All pre-conditions for the use case must be explicitly stated (typically as other use cases that must be completed before this use case can be run).
Pre-conditions should not include functional or non-functional requirements that should be expressed elsewhere in the document.
Post-conditions must be provided for both successful completion and unsuccessful completion of the use case.
Post-conditions must only address the system state and must not include functional or non-functional requirements that should be addressed elsewhere in the document.
An Extension Points section should not be included.
At least one Key Scenario must be provided.
Key scenarios must only refer to a combination of actions that occur as the use case flows through the basic flow and the alternative flows. Details of those flow actions should not be repeated when describing the key scenario.
Key scenario descriptions should include a reference to any activity diagrams available to further illustrate the scenario.
