

Product Vision Statement

Student Attendance System

For Ken Tucker, who needs an easy means of tracking student attendance at his classes, the Student Attendance System is an automated student attendance tracking system that allows students to log their attendance directly from their lab computer. Unlike Ken's current paper-based attendance tracking process, our product produces reliable attendance reports with a minimum level of effort from both students and the instructor.